AFTER the holidays, one of the first problems for Los Angeles to wrestle with will be street-paving.

SAN FRANCISCO has at last got ready and is trying her dynamiters. Two to one its a flash in the pan!

THE defeated General Lee is likely to have a monument long before his successful antagonist, General Grant, is thus honored.

DURING the present season over two million pounds of raisins have been shipped from California, of which Los Angeles furnished more than half.

SECRETARY EVARTS made a speech in Boston last evening. One of his sentences reaches all the way to California, and isn't finished either. It's the longest of his recorded utterances.

THERE has been another increase of the public debt during the present month, amounting to $2,000,000. Democratic retrenchment and reform is getting in its work.

THE project of granting lands to Indians in severalty, and eventually dispensing with the wild reservation nuisance is to come before Congress in a recommendation from Mr. Holman's committee.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is a man of dispatch. He shook hands with four hundred and forty-eight persons yesterday in sixteen minutes by the watch, which was an average of two and one-seventh seconds to each. If he keeps on practicing he will get this receiving business down to Jeffersonian simplicity yet.

THE San Francisco Merchant reports a notable increase in wine shipments to the East. For October last they were nearly double the shipments of the corresponding month in 1884. This, we may as well forestall the Herald in saying, is all on account of that horrid high license.

THE religious people of Los Angeles are in for a campaign, if it takes all winter. Dr. Munhall's meetings, which have already been kept up three weeks, are to continue through next week. In January the Reverend Sam Jones is coming to preach in the Tabernacle, and after him, Harrison, the boy preacher. If there are other evangelists available they will be secured. The devil must either surrender or quit the town.

THIRTEEN years after the convening of the Court of Alabama Claims the judgments awarded by the court are reported and certified to the Treasury Department, and, it is fair to presume, will shortly be paid. The man who has been holding his breath all this time, awaiting the proceeds of his claim, must have got very black in the face. Many of the original claimants have no doubt gone to their long homes, while a large proportion of those who didn't die went crazy.

AMUSEMENTS.

"CALLED BACK."—The Baldwin Theater Company produced last evening at the Grand Opera House J. R. Grismer's Called Back, the author appearing as the hero, "Gilbert Vaughn." In his play Mr. Grismer has made the best of Hugh Conway's unpromising novel of the same name, and has produced a drama of considerable strength, though a little pruning of the dialogue might be advantageous. Mr. Grismer played his role intelligently and evenly, and received much well-earned applause. The strength of the production rests in Miss Davies, whose extremely talented work gives great promise for her future. She showed to great advantage in all her business, which did not tempt her to the overpassion of Tuesday evening. Her "Pauline March" was admirable. The rest of the company formed a satisfactory support, though Mr. Webster would relieve the audience by easing his lungs a bit as "Macari." He tore his passion too tatterfully.

Called Back will be presented for the last time this evening. The Wages of Sin will be given for the special New Year matinee, and to-morrow evening Lester Wallack's military comedy drama The Veteran, will constitute the bill. Monte Cristo will be given for the farewell performance of this excellent company Saturday night. The drama The Veteran to be presented New Years night, is a companion play to Rosedale, is written in the best vein of the well-known actor-author, and has achieved most successful runs both in Europe and America. The Baldwin Theater Company is worth seeing.

Good Ore.

G. W. Remington, well known as a miner and prospector, showed a TIMES reporter last evening a chunk of fine ore, running 60 to 90 per cent. magnetic iron. He says he has a ledge of it, cropping out from 50 to 100 feet in width, and with a million tons in sight. It is situated about 50 miles from this city, in the northern part of the county, and is twelve miles from the railroad.

He showed also a good specimen of sulphide of antimony, a deposit of which he mentioned seven miles northeast of this city.

They Got Licenses.

Something must be going to happen. The first saloonists arrested for violating the high license ordinance since the Guernero trial before Mayor Spence, were pulled yesterday by officers Reel and Rulo. They were Emil Richter, of 204 S. Spring st., and Chas. Benson, of 101 S. Main st. Each procured a license and was released without prosecution.

Duel in a Horse-car.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—In the suburbs of Gottenburg, N. J., last night, Frederick Smith and August Broden, popular young men, between whom there was a long-standing grudge, met in a crowded horse-car and began shooting. When the fusilade was ended the car was empty save those two, and Smith was lying on the floor, with two wounds in one of his arms and one in his side, and Broden was carrying a bullet in one of his arms. Broden was arrested and Smith was taken home and cared for. He may die.

COMMISSIONER SPARKS TALKS BACK.

Cleveland's Reception—Further Increase in the Public Debt—Cheering Crop Statistics—National Notes.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Congressman Markham is actively engaged in endeavoring to convince the Postal Department of the advisability of changing the mail route for Los Angeles and San Diego from its present route via Waterman and Mojave to the Cajon Pass route, thus saving many hours in transmission. He has received the resolution passed by the Los Angeles Board of Trade asking that the change be made, and has written to San Diego and other towns along the line of the California Southern asking that similar action be taken.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Four hundred and forty-eight persons were waiting patiently in the east room of the White House to-day to pay their respects to the President. The crowd was almost twice as large as at any preceding reception of this kind. The President appeared just before 2 o'clock and entered upon his task with such expedition that the entire room was cleared in sixteen minutes. Several persons tried to engage the President's attention with private matters, but they were told to call again to-morrow. One individual shook hands in an agitated manner with one of the ushers and passed the President without noticing him. He was reminded of his mistake by the laughter of the crowd, and endeavored to return and shake the President's hand, but was borne away by the rapidly moving line of people behind him.

ENCOURAGING CROP STATISTICS.

The statistical estimates of the Department of Agriculture for the principal cereal crops of the year are computed, and the aggregate bushels are as follows, in round millions: Corn, 136,000,000; wheat, 357,000,000; oats, 629,000,000. The area of corn is 73,000,000 acres; wheat, 34,000,000; oats, 33,000,000. The value of corn averages nearly 33 cents per bushel, and makes an aggregate of $635,000,000, $5,000,000 less than the value of the last crop. The decrease in the product of wheat is 30 per cent., and only 17 per cent. in valuation, which is $275,000,000. The valuation of oats is $180,000,000. The reduction in wheat is mostly in the valleys of Ohio and in California. The States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas last year produced 170,000,000 bushels; this year, 80,000,000; a reduction of 90,000,000 bushels. The production of all cereals is 53 bushels to each inhabitant, and the aggregate value is larger than in any former year.

ALABAMA CLAIMS DECISIONS.

The Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims sent to the Department of State to-day, a certified list of judgments and decisions in cases of the second class rendered since the organization of the court in 1872, together with a certified list of judgments and decisions in cases of the first class, in which judgments ranging from $200 to $3000 are rendered in favor of claimants, and thirty-one in which the judgment is for the United States. Those of the second class fill several large books and the awards to claimants amount to from $100 to $80,000 or $90,000. They will be certified by the Secretary of State to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment according to law.

NATIONAL NOTES.

An Increase of Public Debt During December.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Treasury officials express the opinion, founded on the fact, that the receipts have been very light during the month, while pension payments have been made to a considerable amount on account of last month, that the public debt statement will show an increase of nearly two million dollars during the current month.

ROBERT E. LEE'S MONUMENT.

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed the Collector of Customs at Georgetown, D. C., to admit free of duty certain plaster models imported by the Ladies' Monument Association, as designs from which a selection is to be made for a monument to General Robert E. Lee. The authority for the exemption from duty is found in the statute providing for the free importation of articles of art imported for the purpose of erecting public monuments.

THE NEW YORK SUB-TREASURY.

Treasurer Jordan expects to go to New York on the 31st inst., to assume charge of the United States Sub-Treasury there. He says that he knows no reason why he should not discharge the duties of the Sub-Treasury, as it simply amounts to the performance by a superior officer of certain duties heretofore discharged by a subordinate.

Murder and Suicide.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 30.—At Mount Pleasant, a village near this city, to-day a terrible tragedy was enacted. E. Geretti, an Italian, was beating his wife, when his brother, S. Geretti, and James P. Colburn, a well-known insurance agent of this city, interfered in the woman's behalf. The wife, with her four little children, escaped from the infuriated husband, who, incensed at the interference, crept up behind Colburn and fired three shots at him, one of the balls lodging in his spine and inflicting what is thought to be a fatal wound. After the shooting of Colburn, Geretti fled to his farm, about a quarter of a mile distant, pursued by the town marshal and a posse. He locked himself up in his house and, the posse being unarmed, defied them to arrest him. While his pursuers were deliberating, Geretti placed the muzzle of his pistol in his mouth and blew out his brains.

An Army Officer's Suicide.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A special from Newport, R. I., says: Lieutenant Jones, of the Fourth United States Artillery, returned to duty at Fort Adams, last night, having overstayed his leave of absence about a week. This preyed upon his mind, and rather than submit to a court-martial and its disgrace, he decided to die. Early this morning he arose, dressed himself and reported for duty. He subsequently returned to his quarters and shot himself in the head with a revolver, the ball entering the brain. His death is but a question of a few hours. He was a popular young officer and unmarried. His relatives and friends reside in Cincinnati. The tragedy has cast a deep gloom over the garrison at Fort Adams.

A Daring Outrage.

DENVER, Dec. 30.—This morning at 3 o'clock three masked men entered the engine-room of the Marshal Coal Company's works at Erie, on the Colorado Central Railroad, forty miles from Denver, captured the engineer, took him several hundred yards away, tied him, and then returned and set fire to all the coal on the dumps. The hoisting works, engine-house, tramway and several cars of the railroad company were completely destroyed, over $15,000 worth of property, throwing several hundred men out of employment. Three weeks ago the wages of men in these mines were cut down. When the Knights of Labor ordered a strike the miners, rather than be without work at this time of the year, refused to obey, and continued work, and this morning's outrage is supposed to be the work of a few striking miners.

Orange and Green Riots.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Dec. 30.—The Orange and Green have resumed their hostilities in Conception Bay. Yesterday an Orangemen's mob attacked two of the men released from Riverhead, and fatally wounded them. There is great excitement in Harbor Grace. Crowds are occupying the streets, and a riot is anticipated. Mayor Fawcett and a large detachment of the constabulary force have gone on a special train to the scene of the affray.

THE LAND OFFICE.

Commissioner Sparks's Peppery Reply to His Critics.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—The Daily News publishes a Washington special, which says: Commissioner Sparks, of the Land Office, who has been so severely criticised for his recent rulings in land questions, was asked if it were true, as reported, that he wished he had not been confirmed, in order to see whether or not the Senate would now reject him, and he replied: "I don't care to discuss that. Those who oppose my work have stated repeatedly that if I had not been confirmed at the outset I would now be rejected. I said before, and now repeat, that if the Senate would investigate the conduct of my office and study the motive which prompted my decisions, it would not only confirm but compliment me upon the faithful discharge of my duty. When I took the office I had no special instructions. I was expected to carry out the laws, and am endeavoring to do so. Land matters were then in a deplorable condition. The business had been conducted in a loose manner. There was no strict obedience of the law on the part of subordinates, and fraudulent entries of government land were proceeding with impunity. In fact, the public domain was being rapidly wasted. Non-resident speculators were acquiring a far greater proportion than was going into the hands of bona fide settlers. I found organized rings which seemed devoted to the theft of lands. My object has been to check these violators of the law, and I did not expect to get along without arousing the hostility of a great many people."

When asked whether he was thinking of resigning, he answered: "No, sir, I am not, nor have I ever so thought. On the contrary, I am more fully resolved than ever to remain."

When questioned as to the statement that his decisions had been frequently overruled, the Commissioner said: "I assure you upon my honor that there is not a single instance where my decisions have been overruled. Of course it would be singular, in the multiplicity of matters that come before this office, if the Secretary should not find occasion to reverse some. It will happen, and often, I presume, but thus far, despite the ravings of a subsidized press, and the deliberate falsehoods of corrupt combinations, which I am trying to destroy, there has not been a reversal. The nearest approach to my being overruled was in the case of Gifford vs. the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad. The railroad had a grant along the line that was described in the act as running to the Pacific ocean. It was constructed from the Kansas terminus to San Bernardino and the Pacific slope, and thence it was extended along the coast 400 miles to San Francisco. Gifford had settled upon public land along the reservation claimed adjacent to this extension. I ruled that he held the land as against the claims of the grant along this portion of its route by the Atlantic and Pacific company. Gifford was there prior to the road, and hence was entitled to his tract, but I went further and said that the road had no grant along this extension, for it had exhausted its right when it first reached the Pacific Ocean. If it had a grant it was along the intended route from Kansas to San Bernardino. It is obvious to the most careless observer that the other scheme, if valid, would permit the road to be run at will, and to claim land adjacent to its circumflexions. Secretary Lamar, in this case, only recommended that the reservation of this railroad for the grant be respected until it should be determined in an issue squarely involving the disputed point, but Gifford's right to his land was sustained. The railway company has never appealed, and I don't believe it will. I might add in this connection that it is doubtful whether the Atlantic and Pacific road has any right even along its original line, for the simple reason that it has not complied with the terms of its grant."

A SMUGGLER'S STORY.

Seven Chinamen Murdered by an Italian Near Victoria.

SEATTLE, W. T., Dec. 30.—A horrible story was put in circulation here yesterday. It was to this effect: An Italian boatman left Victoria one day last summer for the American side of the strait of Fuca. When almost across he saw the United States revenue cutter Oliver Wolcott coming towards him, with the evident intention of examining his craft. He became alarmed, and to avoid the penalties attaching to the offense of smuggling Chinese into the United States, resolved to make away with the evidences of his guilt. He called the Chinamen out of the cabin one by one, and as they came out struck them on the head with a club and pitched them overboard. In this way he got rid of the whole number, and when boarded from the cutter no evidence whatever of a criminating nature was found. An investigation will be made, with a view to ascertaining the truth or falsity of this story. A recently-convicted smuggler, now in the United States penitentiary, tells this story.

SAN FRANCISCO.

The Dynamiters' Trial Begun—The Wine Product.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—A jury was obtained to-day, after nearly a week's labor, to try the case of the dynamiters, Weissman, Niedtlestadt and Koosher. The examination of witnesses was begun, but was not completed. It will be resumed on Saturday.

ESTIMATE OF THE WINE PRODUCT.

The Merchant in its issue will say that the overland shipments of wine for October exceed those of any month during the year, except March, and that they are nearly double those of the corresponding month last year. It gives the total shipments, by rail only, at 371,105 gallons. Of the raisin exports, the same journal says that over two million pounds were sent out of the State by rail, of which more than half was shipped from Los Angeles, and was the product of southern counties.

The Power of Consular Courts.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec 30.—The case of the second mate of the British bark Lancefield, charged with cruelty to the carpenter of the vessel on the voyage to this port, and whom the British Consul decided to return to England for trial, came up on a writ of habeas corpus in the United States Circuit Court to-day. Judge Pardee read a lengthy opinion, holding that while the Consul acted in accordance with authority vested in him by the British Board of Trade, the action of Section 728, United States Revised Statutes, was limited by Section 4079. Otherwise the first would be a substitute for extradition treaties, which are reserved to the Congressional powers. There was, under the circumstances, a doubt as to the authority of the Court to hold the prisoner, and therefore the habeas corpus was made absolute and the accused was discharged. Counsel for the British Consul gave notice that the motion would be appealed.

Honors to Senator Beck.

LEXINGTON, Dec. 30.—A complimentary banquet was given to Senator Beck to-night at the Phœnix House by representative men of the Blue Grass region without regard to party lines. General William M. Preston presided. The responses to toasts showed what a strong hold the Senator has upon the esteem of his fellow-citizens, and his remarks, made with much feeling, indicated a warm appreciation of the honor received at home.

DENVER, Dec. 30.—To-day the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade moved a vote of thanks to Senator Beck for his advocacy of the continuance of silver coinage, and appointed as a committee Ex-Governor J. B. Grant, John Evans and Hon D. H. Moore to draft resolutions on the subject.

Sad Family Affliction.

MODESTO, Cal., Dec. 30—A few days ago, Hon. J. D. Spencer lost a three-year-old son by diphtheria. Yesterday he lost his only remaining child, a boy, seventeen months old, by the same disease. Mrs. Spencer is also down with the same disease, but the attack is light. Senator Spencer is proprietor of the News.

GRUB AND GUSH.

Boston Bean-Eaters Give a Big Banquet,

AND DISCUSS SILVER AND THE TARIFF.

Four Hours Devoted to Feeding and Four More to National Questions—Speeches by Edmunds, Evarts and Others.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

BOSTON, Dec. 30.—A banquet was given to-night by the Boston Merchants' Association, at which several distinguished Senators and Representatives of the United States were honored guests. It was a notable event in the Club history of Boston. It was held in the spacious banquet hall of the Hotel Vendome, which was beautifully decorated with bunting and flowers. Plates were laid for 300, and all the places were filled. At the head of the tables sat President Wood of the Merchants' Association, who acted as chairman. At his right were in the order named, Governor Robinson, Senator Edmunds, Senator Allison, Senator Dawes, ex-Governor Rice, of Massachusetts; Congressman J. Randolph Tucker, of Virginia. On his left were Mayor O'Brien, of Boston; Senators Evarts, Hoar and Frye, Jonathan Chase, Congressman Benjamin Butterworth, of Ohio; Hon. Oliver Ames and Hon. John D. Long. The tables were filled with Boston's representative business men, with a copious sprinkling of professional gentlemen and others, well known in national and State politics, and journalists, among whom were Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, Oakes Ames, Hon. P. A. Collins, Leopold Morse, R. M. Pulsifer, Col. C. H. Taylor and R. W. Emerson. The dinner itself occupied some four hours in discussion, and the post prandial exercises occupied four hours more. The invitations issued to guests who were expected to speak nominally confined them to leading national issues, but as the night wore on, there was more or less straggling from the main points. A vein of humor ran through all the speeches, and it was evident that most of the distinguished orators did not consider the occasion one upon which to put forward decisive measures.

The post-prandial exercises were opened by President W. B. Wood, who made a brief address and introduced Governor Robinson, who was greeted with three cheers and a tiger, as indeed were all the succeeding speakers. The Governor welcomed the guests of the evening. He referred to the existing difference in value between the gold and silver dollars, and said that upon one thing the merchants of Boston were united, and that was the prompt passage of a national bankrupt law.

SENATOR EDMUNDS'S SPEECH.

Senator Edmunds was the next speaker. On the subject of a bankruptcy bill, he said: "I rather suppose that among the gentlemen present there is not one who does not believe that such a law is essential to the business welfare of the nation. The fundamental idea of a bankrupt law is a fair division of the assets." After further talk on the same subject Edmunds said: "I was going to speak about the tariff, but as usual when I get up to do anything I go into bankruptcy at once" (loud applause, during which the speaker took his seat).

MAYOR O'BRIEN

Welcomed the banqueters on behalf of the city, and said that if the vote were taken to-day in this city, Boston would unanimously favor a repeal of the silver coinage law, and would be just as unanimous in favor of a national bankruptcy law. On the tariff there was a diversity of opinion. His own opinion was that a carefully digested tariff law should be passed to remain unchanged for twenty-five years.

SENTENCES FROM EVARTS.

Senator Evarts spoke in a humorous strain for a time, referring to the statement that $90,000,000 were represented at the banquet, and saying that since this great aggregation of capital was divided on the tariff question it was rather unreasonable to expect Congress to be agreed on it, and then added: "You will find that upon this question of silver and gold the great masses of men, the great neighborhoods, the great interests, take an opposite view. It has been suggested that the question is mainly or largely concerned with and influenced by what may be called the protection or patronage or production of our silver. Well, gentlemen, no doubt those interested in silver mines feel a present and immediate pressure of that kind, but as I look at it, and have for the last seven years, that is really no part of the interest of the American people in this matter. In my judgment the great body of this people will feel, as they certainly should feel, that whatever they may think of what is nominated in the bond of the debt, and whether that might be this or that easier at the solution of the question, that this great body of the people are determined that the debt is to be paid on the honor of the United States, in the sense that the creditor is entitled to feel that he should be paid. If that continues, if that was the spirit of the people when the debt was two-fold and the interest was fourfold, now, when we have reduced to within narrow limits debt and interest, this nation is not going to lower its head to criticisms to the way in which it is to pay its debts. There can be no more responsible questions to be brought to the nations of Europe and to this, our own, than that one whether, when heretofore two metals have supported the commerce and credit of the world, one of these can be struck down, and what would happen if it should be done. But if it be true that we are to discard vituperation and are to discard exaggeration, then we shall know how to deal in the councils of this nation with this present and practical question concerning the coinage of silver in a way that shall be accepted, until there shall be developed some necessity for further action.

DOWN ON SILVER.

Collector Saltonstall followed Evarts. He eulogized the honesty of purpose of President Cleveland, strongly depreciated the continued coinage of silver, and advocated a plain, simple tariff law to raise enough revenue to meet governmental needs.

The next speaker was Senator Allison, of Iowa. He favored a national bankrupt bill, and might say that he was one of the few Senators who believed that the law should be amended, and not repealed, and that there will be no difficulty on that question. "The tariff is a larger question, and coming from an agricultural State, it might be suspected that there was a shadow of difference of opinion there and in Massachusetts. I think I can say to you that I believe the prevailing opinion in New York State is in favor of encouraging the manufacturers of our country, and that, so far as legislation can accomplish it, it is our duty to take care of the American laborer rather than the laborer of other countries." Allison pronounced himself as decidedly in favor of bi-metallism, and argued in support of his position.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

Senator Frye, of Maine, was then introduced and delivered a long and vigorous speech, in which he denounced the silver dollar as "a coined lie," urged the beneficence of protective tariff and earnestly advocated the fostering of the carrying trade with subsidies, if necessary, and the application of the surplus revenue to this purpose.

G. Randolph Tucker, of Virginia, was the next speaker. He declared that the only power the Federal government had to lay taxes was to raise revenue for the support of the government. We have free trade between the States. If this has been a blessing here, why should not it be a blessing between all countries in the world. On the silver question he said, whether the government can make eighty cents equal to one dollar is a question in arithmetic. He thought we should wait until the nations of the world had settled what to do on the subject, when it would be time for America to settle the question for itself.

Allee Sameo Melican Man.

FRESNO, Cal., Dec 30.—Wo Chan, a leading Chinese merchant, filed his petition in insolvency to-day, his debts amounted to over $40,000.

FOREIGN BUDGET.

Queen Christina Becomes Regent—Stray Notes from Abroad.

MADRID, Dec. 30.—Queen Christina was sworn in as regent before the Cortes to-day. The streets through which the royal pageant passed were lined with troops. The populace were very cordial in their reception of Her Majesty. The members of the Cortes cheered as the widowed Queen entered the Chamber, and several ladies in Her Majesty's suite began to weep.

SOUDAN REBELS ROUTED.

CAIRO, Dec. 30.—A dispatch from Koseh says: Lieutenant-General Stephenson, commander of the British forces in Egypt, attacked the rebels who have been menacing the garrison for several weeks. A three thours' fight ensued, resulting in the British troops capturing Giniss, a village near Koseh. The rebels were completely routed. Cavalry is pursuing the enemy. Two guns and twenty banners were captured. The English lost one officer killed and twenty-one men wounded. The Egyptian allies of the British lost six killed and thirteen wounded.

OPPOSED TO HOME RULE.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Mr George O. Trevelyn, formerly Chief Secretary for Ireland, made a speech at Stratford this evening. Referring to the Irish question he said that there could be no halfway between the complete separation of Ireland and absolute imperial control. Unless it was intended to keep the care of law and order in the hands of the central government, it would be better to repeal the Union Act. He condemned the proposition to give Ireland a parliament and at the same time allow Irish members in the English Parliament.

A COSTLY FIRE.

The Co-operative Wholesale Society establishment in Whitechapel has been destroyed by fire. The loss is £60,000.

AN EMPHATIC DENIAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The Staats Zeitung publishes a special cable from its Vienna correspondent denying, upon authentic information received from the foreign office at Vienna, that Count Kalnoky's original dispatch of May 8, to Baron Schaeffer, the Austro-Hungarian Minister at Washington, contained the words, "The position of a foreign envoy wedded to a Jewess by civil marriage would be untenable and even impossible in Vienna."

FRENCH PRODUCTS IN CHINA.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—The French government will send a state engineer to China to investigate and report on the resources of the country, and try to obtain a concession from the Chinese government for railways and other works.

GOVERNOR OF THE CONGO COUNTRY.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: M. Janssen will be appointed Governor of the Congo State. Henry M. Stanley's candidature has been definitely set aside.

BISMARCK AGAIN PROSTRATED.

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—Prince Bismarck is again prostrated by a severe attack of neuralgia. He is compelled to take a recumbent posture when at work.

THE IRON TRADE.

A Bright Outlook at Pittsburg—Wages Advanced.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 30.—The iron and steel trade in this city has never been better than at present, and a comparison with previous years will show that since the great increase in business which commenced last June, there has been more iron and steel made in Pittsburg than in any six months in the history of the trade.

An offer of ten per cent. advance in wages, to take effect next Monday, has been made by Carnegie Bros. & Co. to their employes.

At the Edgar Thompson Steel Works, at Braddock, Pennsylvania, the wages of steel railworkers, as has been mentioned, is arranged on the first of each year. During the past two weeks the men have been holding meetings and talking over the condition of trade. It was decided to ask for an advance of fifteen per cent. This afternoon a notice was circulated through Braddock, requesting all employés of the Edgar Thompson Steel Works to keep away from the company's office on Wednesday, December 30, 1885, and not to sign any contract with the officers of the above-named company until they give fair equivalent for their work. It was signed "Employés." This was soon followed by a notice, posted at the mill, informing the employés that the scales were ready for signing and that places of persons refusing to sign by Saturday would be filled. It is quite probable that the company's proposition will be accepted. About 4,000 men are employed.

THE DOMINION.

A Bishop's Epistle to His Flock Raises a Rumpus.

MONTREAL, Dec. 30.—The letter of Monsignor Fabre, Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal, which was read in all the churches in the diocese on Sunday, has caused widespread indignation among a majority of the clergy and their flocks. The reference by the Bishop to the Riel agitators in their attempts to raise a revolt against the authority of the State, and to the political use made of the church in the celebration of masses for the dead rebel, has stung the French-Canadians to the very quick, and many of the Bishop's most intimate friends seem to think he has made a mistake, and that unless he withdraws or modifies some of his statements he may expect serious defections from among his clergy. It is known that many priests refused to read to their flocks those parts of the letter which directly referred to the Riel question, and when called upon to explain their motives replied that they would sooner resign and leave the diocese than conform to the requirements of the letter. The Bishop seems to realize that he has gone too far, and it is intimated semi-officially that he will explain his views more fully next Sunday.

MORMONDOM.

Brigham Young's Namesake Sentenced—A Suicide.

SALT LAKE, U. T., Dec. 30.—After a scathing lecture on the nastiness of the work in which the culprit had been engaged, Judge Zane to-day sentenced Brigham Young Hampton, convicted of conspiracy in keeping houses of ill-fame, to the full extent of the law, one year in the county jail and costs.

Mary Wilson, sixteen years old, suicided to-day by taking strychnine. Family trouble was the cause.

The Lake Shore Dividend.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The recent strength in Lake Shore stock is attributed, at least in part, to an impression more or less prevalent, that the directors would declare a dividend tomorrow. It is stated this evening, however, that the Vanderbilts and their associates are opposed to any dividend at present, and it is thought that none will be declared.

Still Quaking.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—There was a sharp earthquake at 9:50 this morning. No damage is reported. The shock was also felt at Napa, Vallejo, Port Costa and Martinez.

The Book-makers Overlooked Him.

[Chicago News.]

What is human greatness? Here was William H. Vanderbilt, the richest man on the American continent; he dies suddenly and the obituary editor is told to write him up. Where are the data to be had? Neither the "American Encyclopedia," nor "Appleton's Annual," nor "Men of Our Times," nor the "Biographical Dictionary," nor the "Domestic Encyclopedia," nor the "Dictionary of Universal Biography," nor "Famous Americans," by Parton, nor Harper's publications for the last ten years—none of these works contain a line about William H. Vanderbilt! Yet what a hold this man had on the railway system in this country! How vast was his influence in business circles! But, cruel iconoclasts that they are, the book-makers and biography-writers never saw him. His millions couldn't get him a place between the covers of a cyclopedia.

WICKED WARDS.

Indian Scouts Refuse to Obey Orders.

THE TROOPS UNABLE TO DISARM THEM.

Criticism on Crook—Laird's Plan to Put Frontiersmen on the Trail of the Hostiles Approved.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

TUCSON, A. T., Dec. 30.—The Star's Duncan special says: Rangers who have been in pursuit of the hostile Indians have just returned. They report that while on the trail of the hostiles the Indian scouts refused to follow it and defied the officers in command to compel them to obey their orders. The chase had to be abandoned, and the troops returned here without having accomplished anything. Telegrams have been sent to General Crook asking for instructions. The scouts are armed and the officers are afraid to disarm them. The Indians and soldiers are now camped here separately.

CROOK'S CONDUCT CRITICISED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The Herald's Washington special says: At the War Department it is said that General Crook will soon have fully one-sixth of the entire army under his command. He will have between four and five thousand cavalry and infantry subject to his orders; all on account of ten murderous Apaches on the warpath.

"Do you fear any attack on the San Carlos Reservation?" was asked of an army officer of high position in the Department.

"No fear is entertained, but some reckless cowboys would undoubtedly think it rare sport to massacre the Indians at San Carlos. Then dozens as defiant and as reckless as the Apaches now on the warpath would infest the frontier settlements, burning the houses of the whites and killing indiscriminately."

LAIRD'S BILL COMMENDED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—The Tribune says: Congressman Laird's bill to raise a regiment of frontiersmen, especially to put an end to the Apache outrages will be popular even outside of New Mexico and Arizona. The regular troops have made a gallant pursuit, but it has proved ineffectual, although presumably all the soldiers that can be spared for the purpose have been placed at Crook's disposal. Why not, therefore, let the frontiersmen have a chance to punish the Apache murderers under proper conditions? It says that under Crook's command they would enter the campaign with an ardor that would make it particularly lively for the Indians.

THE SPECIAL INDIAN COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The Star says that in his report upon the work of the special Indian Committee who visited the various reservations during the summer recess of Congress, Holman is going to recommend the appointment of a commission to take the matter in charge of giving land in severalty to such of the Indians as are far enough advanced in civilization to warrant such action, and assembling the rest in one locality, as far as practicable. At present, he says, the reservations are scattered all over the country and their lands are useless to the Indians in many cases. Some of those lands should be sold in their interest, and such of the Indians as are friendly should be put upon some reservation in certain cases and kept there until ultimately they have reached a state of civilization that would warrant their having lands in severalty and becoming citizens. There are some cases where it would not do to move the Indians from their present localities, or to interfere with them, as their attachment to their homes is very strong. In most such cases land in severalty should be given them.

BORDER TROUBLES.

United States Troops to Expel Mexican Desperadoes.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—The Laredo, Tex., correspondent of the Globe-Democrat says: A Sergeant of the United States army stationed at Ringgold barracks, some sixty miles down the Rio Grande river from this place, arrived here to-night and reports that a general uprising is taking place in the small American towns along the river between here and Brownsville. Major Kellogg, commanding the United States troops at the above mentioned post, and forces are now en route to Roma, a small city on the American side, where over three thousand men, mostly from Mexico, are in arms and express their intention of taking the city of Mier. Major Kellogg proposes to disperse them or force them to leave American territory, in order to prevent a breach of neutrality laws between the two republics.

Volcanic Eruption in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), Dec. 30.—Great excitement prevails in the State of Colima over an eruption of the volcano of Colima. Four days ago loud reports were heard, and these were soon followed by eruptions of lava, which flowed over the sides of the mountain, completely covering them. At last accounts the people were much alarmed, as the flow of lava continued. A white cloud overhangs the mountain, and on it are reflected the flames darting up from the crater.

An Epidemic of Insanity.

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 30.—John Hurly, a policeman of this city, disappeared Friday last. He was found yesterday evening in a tree near Fowler, about ten miles from here, nearly nude, in a demented condition. This is the sixth person that has become insane here in the last two weeks.

DIAMOND HOUSE.

Beautiful Display of Diamonds

Largest Stock of Jewelry, Watches and Plate Goods.

Fine Assortment of Goods Suitable for Holiday Gifts.

Special Inducements Offered at Present—Unequalled Bargains—Visitors Welcome At All Times.

The finest stock of diamonds, jewelry, watches and plate goods ever brought to this city, is now on exhibition at the DIAMOND HOUSE, 273 N. Main st., opposite the Baker block. The proprietor, JULES F. ROTH, has lately refitted and restocked the establishment, and in quality, variety and general excellence it has no equal south of San Francisco.

THE DISPLAY OF DIAMONDS

Has already been noted, and it only remains to add that great care has been taken in the selection of the stones, and the most fastidious can be suited, both in price and quality at the Diamond House. It is no longer necessary to send to San Francisco or the East for the finest jewelry. An inspection of this magnificent stock will convince any one that this statement is a fact.

AMERICAN WATCHES.

The Diamond House carries a full line of the best American watches. This includes the celebrated Howard, Waltham and Elgin makes. These goods are warranted for two years by W. B. Tuthill, watch-maker for the firm, and the prices are lower than they have ever before been offered in Los Angeles. They are especially suitable for holiday gifts.

The chronographs and repeaters offered by the Diamond House are of the very best makes, and are also fully warranted.

PLATE GOODS.

There is a splendid showing of Rogers Brothers and Meriden quadruple plate goods. There is nothing in this line which cannot be purchased as advantageously at the Diamond House as in the largest establishment of San Francisco and leading Eastern cities.

HOLIDAY GIFTS.

Persons who desire to procure holiday goods will find the largest and best assortment at the Diamond House. Everything in the line of fashionable jewelry can be purchased at a lower price than elsewhere in the city. As this house has recently opened under an entirely new management, many special and unparalleled advantages will be offered customers during the holiday season.

Four languages—English, German, Spanish and French—are spoken by the proprietor, who will welcome visitors at all times.

STANTON,

The Leading Photographer of Southern California.

T. E. Stanton's gallery, Temple block, Los Angeles, has long had the reputation of furnishing the most artistic photographs in the city, and the proprietor is now better prepared than ever before to please the public. His work has repeatedly been pronounced the best by competent judges, and an inspection of his boudoirs, cabinets and other portraits will show that he is patronized by hundreds of the best citizens of Southern California. He makes a specialty of large portraits, life-size or smaller, as may be desired. He has always on hand choice stereoscopic views of Los Angeles, just the thing to send to Eastern friends.

MERRIAM'S CANDIES.

A Choice Assortment of Holiday Goods.

Merriam's candy store is just now a busy place. About a dozen persons are turning out some of the most attractive goods in the confectionery line ever seen in this city. A. Merriam, the proprietor, has been in business thirteen years in this city, and can offer advantages to customers second to no house on the Coast. Wholesalers or retailers can be supplied at short notice. The house is prepared to supply papier mache and holiday goods of every description in their line. The store and factory are located at

W. McLEAN'S PATENT PAVEMENT.

The Best and Most Popular Pavement in Existence.

The patent artificial stone pavement manufactured by Wm. McLean, No. 719 Third st., between Fort and Hill sts., is beyond question the handsomest, the most durable and best pavement ever introduced into Los Angeles. That it is giving satisfaction is shown by the fact that the most prominent citizens of Los Angeles and vicinity are adopting it in preference to all other patents. It is far more durable than the average artificial stone, and its appearance at once recommends it. At Mr. McLean's factory, known as the Los Angeles Plaster and Cement Works, may be seen a large assortment of center pieces, brackets and statuary. Address him and obtain prices on his patent pavement.

VAWTER TRACT.

Title Perfect. Abstract at the office.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third Cash, balance in One and Two Years, at 10 per cent. interest. Sale to take place on the grounds.

RCS

The Vawter Tract has been divided into large, beautiful residence villa lots. Each lot contains about eight ordinary city lots, and the tract is laid out with streets 60 feet wide and alleys. A perpetual water right goes with each lot, giving the purchaser an abundant supply of the purest mountain water delivered in front of each lot in four-inch pipes. Many of these lots are covered with orange and lemon trees, grape vines, peach and apple trees, just coming into bearing. The soil is a rich, light sandy loam. This tract is a part of Pasadena, being one of the original allotments of the San Gabriel Orange Grove Association lands; otherwise known as the Indiana Colony. It is that part of Pasadena lying nearest to the city of Los Angeles. The snow-capped mountains of the Sierra Madre range in the distance, the green hills dotted with orange groves in the foreground, and pure mountain water, offer unusual attractions to purchasers. The proximity to the Sierra Madre College, churches and schools, and last, but not least, a view of the great Raymond Hotel, in process of erection, one mile and a half to the east, make this location one of the most desirable spots in Southern California for a home.

Parties desiring to visit this tract before the day of the sale, can leave Los Angeles on the 8:45 morning train, and get off at Lincoln Park station, and have plenty of time to inspect the tract before taking the returning train. Concerning Putnam.

The following "mighty interestin' reading" is found in the editorial columns of the Toledo (O.) Commercial Telegram. We make haste to reprint it for the especial edification of the faithful on the Pacific Coast, a lot of whom would like to go to Honolulu, we know, if they could only carry with them the commission of the President:

A dispatch from Washington states that an effort is being made to "unite all Democratic Congressmen in a protest against the confirmation of John H. Putnam, Consul-General at Honolulu." The United States has no Consul-General at Honolulu. John H. Putnam holds the Presidential appointment as Consul at Honolulu—such appointment expiring by limitation with the next subsequent meeting of Congress, unless confirmed.

Putnam is a Democratic politician from Chillicothe. He was Governor Allen's private secretary, and afterwards editor of one or two newspapers at the capital city. He was a bitter partisan, but out of harmony with every element of the Democratic party opposed to Allen's Presidential aspirations. He antagonized Allen G. Thurman and his large and respectable following. He used the columns of the old Cincinnati Commercial in making war to the knife on the Enquirer and the McLean following. He is the man of whom Allen O. Myers said, on hearing of his appointment, that "he would sell the American flag for an undershirt, if he could make it pay," or words to that effect. He was a journalistic Ishmaelite, impartial only in making enemies equally of his own and all other parties. Why he should have been appointed to one of the three first-class consulates—(Liverpool, $6,000; Hong Kong and Honolulu, each $4,000,)—so soon after the inauguration of President Cleveland, and upon so few vouchers, remains an unanswerable conundrum. California has always claimed this consulate, and will no doubt join, without distinction of party, in helping his Democratic enemies to defeat Putnam's confirmation. His immediate predecessor was David W. McKinley, a brother of Congressman McKinley, of Ohio, but for thirty years and more a citizen of California. McKinley's predecessor was John M. Morton, son of Governor Morton, of Indiana, but a citizen of California, of many years' standing—a warm personal friend of Senator Miller (an Indiana soldier) and other leading men in both parties. Morton's predecessor was our own Scott, of Warren, father of the Scott law—not a Californian, but an Ohio man, whose goodness made him more than an equal of the best man in the whole State of California.

All things considered, the chances for Mr. Putnam to be confirmed as United States Consul at Honolulu do not seem oppressive or overwhelming. Democrats desiring to occupy one of the three most desirable posts in the consular service of the United States had better begin "laying the ropes" as soon as possible. The Consul is not expected or required, like the United States Minister, to give expensive dinners to all American citizens and Hawaiian officials, and to all diplomatic representatives and naval officers of all the foreign powers; consequently, the Consul is able to save half his salary and all his notarial fees (with a consular clerk detailed from the State Department and on its pay roll to do his work), while the United States Minister may easily spend twice the amount of his salary, and have to draw on his private banker for money enough to pay his passage to his beloved native land.

(The editor of the Commercial Telegram, General Comly, was formerly United States Minister Resident at the Hawaiian Islands.)

We have dozens and dozens of Democrats on the Pacific Coast who would take great pleasure in sacrificing themselves on the altar of their country in the seductive climate and among the dark-skinned houris of Honolulu, and there might even be found in stoical Los Angeles one or two Roman patriots who could be induced to step into Mr. Putnam's shoes, in the event of his being officially compelled to lift himself out of his gunboats through the revocation of his exequatur. There is our young friend Henry O'Melveny, for instance. What is the matter with him as timber for a Consul? Or Sidney Lacy? Or Walter D. Stephenson? Or J. Harry Conlan? (He could decorate the Palace de Kalakua and paper the town carmine by a large majority.) Or Señor Del Valle? (He could charm the susceptible Kanakas with the hautboy tones of his linguistic eloquence and take care of the consular interests of the government in an up-and-up manner.) Or many another Angeleño of the wrong side in politics? What's to hinder a selection? If Mr. Cleveland will apply to the TIMES for a man to fill Putnam's place—he (Putnam, not Cleveland) ought to be "bounced" incontinently—we'll agree to furnish him a whole regiment of consular timber r. q.

WASHINGTON.

Letter from Our Capital Commissioner.

SOME DEAD-BEATS IN HIGH LIFE.

Pretentious Persons Who Never Pay Cash—Pacific Coast Interests—Danger from An Epidemic Incursion.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The regular season of society at the capital will not open before the New Year's reception at the White House. This is generally regarded as the official gun which signalizes the advent of merriment until the fall of Lenten ashes sends every one into outward, if not inward, meditation and prayer. The first few days of Congress have enlivened society at the capital, but the entertainments have, as a rule, been confined to those in official life and the old residents, who practically keep open house the year round. After New Year's, however, the round of fashionable dissipation will begin in earnest. The scheming mammas and the eligible daughters will be arrayed on one side, with the available young men and the bachelor and perhaps bald-headed old Congressmen on the other. It is given out that, as this is the first Democratic administration since the war, an unusual effort will be made in the direction of a successful season. From all appearances there will be a large number of Southern beauties with us this winter. Many of the Southern members of Congress who have hitherto regarded themselves in the light of "a fifth wheel to the coach" while the Republican party was in power, have been compelled to make more of a show in a social way than ever before. During the Republican regime a Democratic Congressman had but little need of making a social star of himself. This year matters are entirely different. The Democratic Congressman is only human after all. Hitherto he has not been pestered with the visits of delegations of "influential citizens of his own party" after this or that favor, and he did not care how the few intimate personal friends who called upon him found him quartered. This year he is bigger than ever. The visiting delegations like to find their member of Congress living in as good style and cutting just as big a figure as anybody, and the consequence is that the humble Representative is frowning down upon his old-time favorite boarding house and is living in a more expensive manner. The wealthy Congressman is here making just the same social stir that he has ever since he came to Washington. These two facts point to an unusually brilliant season for the administration which is supposed to hold a patent upon the only true and reliable "Jeffersonian simplicity." It is quietly whispered here that there will be a series of exposures of the performances of a certain clique of foreign diplomatic representatives, unless they step up like little men and settle their honest debts. A diplomatist occupies a very proud position in Washington. He is exempt from arrest when he sallies forth to dally with rum and paint the town red, and he is equally exempt from the annoyances of paying the vulgar trades-people who, strange enough, are objecting to giving their goods away. There have been several such scandals here, the last being that of a former Russian Minister, who eventually ran away and left two-thirds of the merchants decidedly in the lurch. Just now society is gossipping over a more trifling affair. It appears that the handsome son of one of the representatives of a friendly power to the south of us borrowed the sum of $20 from a fashionable belle. The young blood meets the beauty regularly, but never a word does he say in reference to the little matter of that $20. She has waited for some time, and finding patience to be one of the lost arts, at last confided the fact to a lady friend. This lady friend was also in a confiding mood, and the consequence is that about one-half of society is on the qui vive to learn whether the lady will receive her money or not. The probabilities are that she has been the involuntary purchaser of twenty dollars' worth of equal parts of wisdom and experience. Another sprig of nobility is recognized as being a beat of the first water. Not long ago he was devoting his whole time to "rushing" a comic opera singer, as he terms it in his own elegant English. The florist and several other people are after him, and he is making frantic efforts to borrow money from his friends so that his distinguished papa will not learn of the escapade. So far he has not been successful. The men about town all know him, and do not care to throw their money away in that fashion. There are several other cases which are the subject of a great deal of chatter. Those who know say that unless these small bills are paid there will be a series of small explosions and the diffusion of a great deal of uncomplimentary criticism.

In his forthcoming annual report, Surgeon-General Hamilton, of the Marine Hospital service, will make the following observations for the information of Congress:

"In the particular of appointments, I have urged for the past six years that this matter no longer be left to regulations, but that Congress make suitable provision for the appointment of medical officers. Bills to this effect have repeatedly been introduced, and sometimes unanimously passed by the committee of the House to whom they were referred, but it has heretofore been impossible to have them reached for consideration. It is hoped that your support will be given to this measure, and the matter again brought forward. These regulations do not require that candidates shall be examined upon impractical technical theories. It is simply required that the candidate shall show an acquaintance with the English branches of a common school education; that he shall have a fair knowledge of chemistry, anatomy, and physiology, and the most intimate knowledge of the practical professional branches. In determining the latter, the candidate is brought face to face with cases of disease in the hospital, and his knowledge upon questions of life or death to the patient is practically tested. It is difficult to imagine that a man of experience would seriously urge the appointing power to cause the setting aside of regulations so obviously in the interest of humanity, simply to obtain a place for a friend however needy, but experience has convinced me that nothing short of law will prevent these attempts with each recurring change of administration, and I firmly believe that, although the principle may be temporarily overshadowed, it will ultimately prevail and become firmly established. Not only is it important from a humanitarian point of view, that the medical officers shall be of the first rank in their profession, but the interests of the Government now require them to be such, in order to protect the Life-Saving Service from the expense which would be entailed on the Government by the certificates of incompetent physicians. Under existing regulations, the medical officers of this service are required to examine physically every person appointed in the Life-Saving Service, with a view of determining his physical soundness, as preliminary to his employment, for the reason that Congress has enacted that for wounds or disabilities contracted in the service, in the line of duty, such employés shall be continued on the rolls for such length of time as the Secretary may direct. It is obvious that, to guard against malingerers on the one hand, or from the effects of hereditary or constitutional affections, perhaps unknown to the person himself, the keenest medical observation is required, and a high grade of professional talent a necessity."

It is understood that the War Department officials are quietly preparing a decision which will be of a great deal of interest to such of those ex-Union soldiers who are still marked down on the records as "deserters." Occasionally some man of prominence comes up for an office and it is found upon investigation that his record as a soldier is stained with the mark "deserter." In many instances, particularly at the close of the war, men returned home, and neglecting to be mustered out in the regular form, were reported as deserters. Thus, for the neglect of a simple matter of routine duty, their records were put in the worst possible light. Lately an effort has been made to clear the records of quite a number of these men by restoring them to the army and granting them discharges in the regular form. It is understood that the Department will hold that these men are deserters from the volunteer army which has been disbanded; that it is impossible to restore them to the regular army from which they never deserted because they never belonged to it; and consequently the charge of desertion must be removed either arbitrarily by the President or by a special act of Congress.

The TIMES correspondent met Surgeon General Hamilton, of the Marine Hospital service, on the street to-day, and called his attention to the following passage in his annual report: "With cholera and smallpox threatening from across the Pacific and yellow fever from the Mexican and Colombian coast, it is somewhat surprising that there is at this moment no effective quarantine on the entire Pacific coast of the United States; and the recommendation heretofore made for the establishment of a Government quarantine at the port of San Francisco is respectfully renewed." The correspondent asked Dr. Hamilton the names of the ports from which cholera is threatened. He replied: "From Osaka and Hiago, in Japan, where cholera is at present an epidemic; and it is also prevalent at Shanghai. In regard to yellow fever it has scarcely been absent from Panama for years, and last year it was more than usually violent. The summer just past it was perhaps not quite so bad as it was the year before, but it is a constant menace and requires careful surveillance. The Mexican cities along the Gulf of California have suffered severely the three years past, and their communication with San Francisco is more or less constant."

"Is there no quarantine at San Francisco?"

"They have a quarantine of observation at San Francisco, and infected vessels have been ordered to Raccoon Strait, back of Angel Island, but no buildings or permanent plant have been erected, as I understand it. Three years ago or more a surgeon of the army, one from the Navy and one from the Marine Hospital Service, examined this question at the request of the California Board of Health, and made a recommendation as to the place where a site should be established; but as no appropriation was made by Congress the matter fell through. Last year the Governor requested that the United States should establish a quarantine at the port of San Francisco, but the fund for that purpose was held to be a temporary one, and permanent buildings could not be erected; and the Government accept nothing less than a permanent establishment. The department offered to establish an inspection and boarding station, and superintend the anchorage of vessels at the port, but this was declined as not affording the relief that the State deemed its due from the United States."

"What further action will the department take in the matter?"

"None whatever. The duty of the department has ended with the formal recommendation to Congress for the establishment of a quarantine at that place; and unless the members of Congress from the Pacific coast take action in the matter, it is not likely that anything will be done." TOWLE.

Cuthbert Raspberries.

E. Pollard, Alhambra, is bringing to Los Angeles twice a week thirty pounds of Cuthbert Raspberries, as fine fruit as was ever shown anywhere. The Cuthbert bears two crops a year. Mr. Pollard has marketed over three tons of raspberries and four tons of blackberries from three acres of ground this year. He has roots of both varieties for sale at $15 per 1000. Also 10,000 Washington Navel orange trees, clear and sound, at reasonable prices. Experiments made, show that the land near Alhambra is peculiarly fitted to grow the orange and lemon and raspberry, and other small fruit.

Athletic sports may now be said to form part of the course of education in all schools and colleges. There is a danger, however, that they may sometimes be indulged in to a hurtful degree, and experienced athletes always counteract the effects of severe training by thorough applications of St. Jacobs Oil. This strengthens the muscles and makes the limbs firm and elastic.

ELEGANT ESTATE IN PASADENA

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

THIS PROPERTY IS CENTRALLY SITUATED, UPON THE CORNER OF TWO OF the principal streets. The house is two stories, with a wide veranda on all sides, and a tower in the center; contains ten rooms, with large halls, closets, bath room, etc. A concrete cellar under the whole house. A nice stable, corral, hay sheds, etc. There are 7½ acres of land under a high state of cultivation, about 300 orange trees, 100 lemons, a large variety of all kinds of deciduous trees and vines, etc. The trees are all in full bearing, and the fruit is of the choicest varieties. About $1000 worth of fruit will probably be sold from the place this year. A beautiful lime hedge incloses the property. The grounds around the house are nicely laid out, with lawns, shrubbery and flowers of all kinds. An unusually large amount of water goes with the place. Iron pipes are laid throughout the grounds, so that each street can be irrigated by hose. Pasadena, now that the railroad is completed, is practically as near the Courthouse as Washington st., being only 20 minutes ride by rail, and is more desirable as a home on account of the pure air and mountain water. A horse railroad will soon be built in front of this place. This is one of the prettiest and most desirable places in Pasadena, and such an opportunity to secure a lovely home in this charming suburb is rarely offered. Terms reasonable, or will exchange for property in Los Angeles. For further particulars apply to Gud bi ate teen & aty V.

Think of it. Dress goods worth from $1.25 up to $2.25 per yard, all being sacrificed and selling for 75 cents. Think of it. Fine brocade satin, choicest colors, offered this season, sacrificed at 69 cents. Think of buying a fine all-silk Rhadame for 79 cents, and a splendid black gros-grain silk, worth $1.25, for 75 cents, and a choice line of plain-colored satins for 36 cents. These prices have never been equalled. We say it, and we emphasize the fact that these goods—silks, satins and other goods we are sacrificing,—will be found just as represented. They are without doubt the best values, the best goods, and the only really desirable line of goods ever offered at a sacrificed price in this city. Really first-class colors in twenty red table linens at 39 cents, and choice German damask, warranted pure linen, for 39 cents. These goods are all very great bargains, and we want you to see them, whether you wish to purchase or not. If you don't want the goods your neighbors may. Our honest opinion is you will never buy so cheap again.

Santa Barbara Independent.

The Santa Barbara Weekly Independent has just issued a special number, an edition of 5000 for the Southern California Immigration Association. It is a creditable number, and contains much valuable matter which is largely devoted to Santa Barbara and vicinity, although other places in Southern California are not forgotten. The Immigration Association proposes to follow this up with a special issue of some one paper in Southern California during the next twelve months.

MUNHALL'S MEETINGS

At the Church and Tabernacle Yesterday Afternoon.

A well-filled house presented themselves in the First Baptist Church at 3 p. m., to listen to Dr. Munhall's interpretation of the Bible on the "Resurrection." The number of written requests for special cases of prayer, and the questions for the Doctor to answer were equal to those on any former occasion. These having received due attention, the subject of the hour was taken up and discussed with much ability, and doubtless to the approval of the orthodox element of the audience. His arraignment of Bishop Foster, however, for heresy on this doctrine may not be fully satisfactory to the Methodists, who are apt to regard their Bishops as loyal and competent exponents of Methodist theology and Bible teaching. The Doctor's statements yesterday were remarkably clear, and strongly reinforced by references to the Bible, and while he continues to read upon these popular themes the interest in these day meetings is not likely to drop off. The anxiety for Scripture knowledge seems unusually great, and is being gratified by the able Doctor. Subject to-day, "The Judgment."

Evening Service.

Half an hour was devoted to a prayer meeting in one corner of the tabernacle partitioned off by a curtain, previous to the service at the stand.

The choir was unusually large for a week night, and under the able leadership of Prof. Northup, furnished music of a superior grade.

The audience was likewise larger than for several evenings previous.

President Bovard opened the meeting with an able and earnest prayer.

Dr. Munhall then announced that after the usual service to-night till nine o'clock, the audience will be dismissed and an old fashioned watch meeting will be held, lasting till the old year passes out and the new year is ushered in.

All are invited to come and stay till midnight, and bring a lunch if you need it.

On Sunday p. m., at 3 o'clock, a meeting will be held for women only, from 13 years of age and over. Prof. Northup then sang a solo entitled "The Wages of Sin is Death," in a very impressive manner.

In introducing his discourse for the evening, the Doctor indulged in some facetious remarks, producing considerable merriment and putting the audience in a good humor.

Said he had come to talk to the railroad men (not one of whom was a fool or an idiot) on "The Broad and Narrow Gauge." His text was in the second chapter of Matthew, "Enter ye in the straight gate," etc.

The preacher said he would first turn the headlight of God's word upon the broad road that leadeth to destruction, and pictured some of the scenes and practices and doings along the broad gauge, showing much familiarity with railroad matters as well as sympathy for railroad men, exhorting them to abstain from swearing, gambling, etc. Every railroad company is a temperance society now-a-days, and don't endure tippling employés.

He then turned the headlight upon the narrow way, and excited much enthusiasm and some pleasantry while he portrayed the condition and prosperity of the railroad men on the narrow road that leads to life.

The whole sermon was made very racy and spicy with personal experiences and reminiscences, and the multitude listened with deep interest to every word uttered by the speaker. It was the most interesting if not the most impressive sermon of the series. The Doctor was, without doubt, in one of his very best moods.

The way of salvation was very happily illustrated by the modern railroad and the various appliances and improvements of the present day.

The invitation to rise for prayers at the close of the sermon, and also to express a determination to give up the old life of sin, was accepted by about a score scattered throughout the spacious room.

Prof. Northup sang the solo, "Come Hither Railroad Men," in a clear voice, every word being heard distinctly.

A large proportion of the great throng remained to the second meeting, and the time was diligently employed in helping those who desired to become Christians.

THE POLICE FORCE.

Appointments Made by the Police Commission.

The Police Commissioners, Mayor Spence, President of Council Sinsabaugh and Chief of Police Davis, met yesterday and appointed the police force for 1886—or during good behavior. Following is the list:

C. A. Kettlar, Captain; John Horner, H. H. Benedict, J. R. Fletcher, J. L. Fonck, Terence Cooney, F. D. Curran, C. Weatherman, J. A. Smith, W. A. Bosqui, T. D. Romans, J. W. Grubbs, W. Gilbert, P. A. Reel, S. Rogers, D. Jones, W. C. Roberts, W. S. Jackson, E. A. Weed, all reappointed; the new men are W. H. McKeag, M. M. Dalton, J. M. Harthorn, S. Arguello, C. H. Haskins, Frank Lemon, W. T. Houston. The old men left out are Stoermer, McMahon, Berry, Keary, Demousset, Rulo, Stanton. Scalebug Inspectos, G. Mullard and Frank Marsh.

W. T. Houston is a carpenter, a Knight of Pythias, and a member of the Eagle Corps. J. M. Harthorn is a Grand Army man and has been engaged in the livery business on Spring street. W. H. McKeag, of East Los Angeles, is another member of the G. A. R.; and so is C. H. Haskins. S. Arguello is a representative Spanish-American. M. M. Dalton is a brother of the new Zanjero and Deputy Constable of Justice Austin's court. Frank Lemon has been Deputy Constable of Justice Austin's court.

The new regime begins to-night.

TEMPLE STREET CABLE ROAD.

Inauguration of Another Important Enterprise Yesterday.

Yesterday at 7 a. m. work was formally commenced on the Temple street cable road. A gang of twenty men were put at work digging the trench, and it is intended to push the enterprise vigorously. About forty men are at work at the shops. The engine house is being constructed as rapidly as possible. It is located on Temple street, sixty feet north of New Cincinnati street, and it is expected that it will be completed in about fifteen days. The machinery used on this road will be rather larger than that on the Second street cable road, and many improvements will be introduced. There will be four cars and four dummies. The latter are known as double-headers, and will require no turn-table at either end of the road. The contract calls for the completion of the road in 120 working days. It will be built from the intersection of Spring and Temple streets to Texas street, a distance of about a mile and three-quarters. This road will therefore connect with Spring, New High, Fort, Hill, Olive, Charity, Hope, Pearl, Centennial, Beaudry avenue, Figueroa, New Cincinnati, Water, Patton, Blake and Texas streets. A careful estimate made by the cable road company shows that 1400 people may be expected to regularly patronize the road, not to speak of the thousands who will ride over it for pleasure. The work of construction is in the hands of S. O. Brown, who built the Second street cable road, and the company's interests are looked after by Octavius Morgan. The completion of this enterprise will make a radical change in a portion of the city which possesses many advantages, and has only lacked reliable means of transportation to make it popular for residence purposes.

Testimony of a Newspaper Man.

John McCafferty, correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin and Helena, Montana, Herald, remarked to a TIMES reporter Tuesday: "During my life I have visited every State and Territory in the Union and all the principal cities and towns in the country. I have found nowhere a more beautiful place than Los Angeles, or a city with finer prospects. Los Angeles is unquestionably the garden spot of the world."

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

COVINA.

THE OUTLOOK FOR THE SETTLERS.
[Correspondence of the Times.]

COVINA, Dec. 28.—Christmas has come and gone and the little ones of our village were happy once more. The Christmas tree was a handsome one, and for a small place like this, well loaded with handsome presents. The selection and arrangement generally of the tree was in the hands of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Eckler, assisted by Mrs. J. S. Eckles, and the manner in which the committee did the work from beginning to end was commendable.

The Social Club gave a dance in their new hall Christmas eve, which, considering the fact that the hall was not entirely finished, was largely attended, and all acknowledge a good time. The hall, when completed, will be 30x60, with handsomely papered walls and ceiling; with a stage 12x14, with accompanying property rooms, 8x12. This hall has been a long-felt want and we all rejoice in its completion.

Owing to the recent rains work had been suspended on the ditch and reservoir, but has been renewed to-day with redoubled energy. Mr. J. S. Phillips, the Superintendent, informed me to-day that he would immediately put a large force of men and teams on the reservoir and push it to completion; also, that the iron pipe would be laid to Covina immediately, thus supplying the residents with water direct from the great reservoir. We will appreciate this new deal very much, as our water supply has been reached through the means of hauling it in tanks. Daylight is dawning for this new and prosperous settlement, and, with the coming of the water to our doors, we look for new life and energy on the part of the people who have cast their lot with us. The ditch is being cemented at a rapid rate, considering the extravagant donations we are receiving from Jupiter Pluvius. About a mile and a quarter is finished and a large force of men are at work preparing the ditch for the plasterers.

A large area of the valley has been sown in wheat, with the prospect of a larger crop than we have ever realized, if the rapid growth at present is anything to judge from.

A couple of our Azusa boys engaged in a good-humored quarrel a few days since, and a pistol in the hands of one of the parties was discharged. It is alleged by the party holding the pistol that it was simply an accident, but the party who came near receiving the billet of lead in his brain won't have it that way, and has had a warrant issued for the arrest of the party who held the pistol. Witnesses who stood near by say the party holding the big end of the "bull-dog" took very good aim for an accidental shot, not missing the head of the object of his wrath and curses more than a few inches. Time will tell whether it was accidental or intentional.

There is no suit against J. S. Phillips for title, as reported in the Herald and Express a short time ago. It was so reported either to willfully and knowingly injure the Covina enterprise, or through inexcusable ignorance. If they had taken the trouble to go to the proper source to ascertain the truth or falsity of such a report, they could have given their readers a different view of the matter. Your correspondent has been waiting to see if they would make the correction, but they do not. I will refer them, and all others who are seeking for truth and light on the subject, to Wells, Vandyke & Lee, well known and reliable attorneys of Los Angeles. The report was false.

Your correspondent, and the many readers of the TIMES and the MIRROR, join in wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year, and hoping your present circulation may double the coming year.

ROSEDALE.

ITEMS FROM THAT PLACE.
[Correspondence of the Times.]

ROSEDALE, Dec. 30.—On Sunday, the 27th inst., the new Presbyterian Church in this district was opened for religious services. A good congregation of sixty or more people were present. The sermon was preached by Rev. F. M. Dimmick, by whose generosity the church has been erected. The sermon, founded on Zechariah, xiv. chapter and seventh verse, "And at evening time it shall be light," was an able and impressive discourse. Rev. Mr. Junkin participated in the service.

The Rosedale public school closed last week with an examination and other exercises which did credit to teachers and pupils. The two teachers, Mr. Riley and Miss Hobbs, have given universal satisfaction during their first term of service in this district.

A rumor is current that a large hotel is to be built on our ridge just beyond the new church. Hardly a more beautiful location for such a building could be found in the suburbs of our city. May it rival the Raymond!

OBSERVER.

A New Project—Extension Second Street Cable Road.

For some weeks past a syndicate of capitalists have been quietly working on a project which, if carried out, will materially change the status of things in a large portion of the city. It is nothing less than an extension of the Second Street Cable Road to Boyle Heights. The syndicate have acquired a large amount of property along the proposed line, and are working as if they meant business. Second street is to be opened to Stevenson street, which thoroughfare runs in a direct line to Boyle Heights. The road will pass through Mrs. Bigelow's place, and cross the river at that point, opening a district which is scarcely settled at all. The company have made arrangements for the moving back of M. S. Baker's foundry, which is at present in the way of the proposed line. It is stated that the Improvement Company is largely interested in the enterprise. Further particulars will be awaited with interest.

Frank Bartlett Post.

Frank Bartlett Post, G. A. R., at its last regular meeting, had a visit from Col. A. M. K. Storrie, Past Commander Reserve Post, 191, Department Pennsylvania, who addressed the Post upon the good of the order and upon the good work done East of the Rockies by the G. A. R. By request of the General Committee, National Encampment, G. A. R., to be held in San Francisco next Summer, Post Commander Bell appointed a committee to assist a subcommittee in San Francisco on excursions during the encampment to points of interest. The following are the committee appointed: Comrades I. R. Dunkleberger, Maj. H. T. Lee, J. R. Fletcher, Dr. W. E. Reed; Citizens Abbott Kinney, Col. E. E. Hewett, Chas. J. Ellis, H. McLellan, J. R. Toberman.

Specialist in all the various diseases of the

HEAD, THROAT AND CHEST

275 N. MAIN ST.,

Next Diamond House, Los Angeles, Cal.

All diseases of the respiratory organs treated by the Ærean system of practice, combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood and nervous system, etc.

CONSUMPTION.

The earlier symptoms of this disease are a sense of weariness upon little exertion, a disposition to remain passive and idle, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effects of cold and a shortness of breath upon moving quickly or ascending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, flying pains throughout the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are worse towards or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon, cold feet and hands, and in many cases blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

The more advanced symptoms are wasting of flesh, diarrhœa, chills and fever, night sweats, expectorations of yellow pus from the ulcers or cavities in the lungs, with or without a depression of the chest, increasing weakness, and death is at last closing up of the air passages of the lungs, which causes strangulation or suffocation of the patient for want of power to expectorate the mucous from the lungs.

Heretofore the treatment of consumption has been very unsatisfactory, both alike to the physicians and their patients, but luckily since the discovery of the Ærean system of practice a few years ago, thousands of cases where had it not been for this system of practice utter failure would have been the result of the disease would have continued up to the present time. Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever. The greater portion of consumption cases can be radically cured.

Consultation free and price within the reach of all.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, may write for "List of Questions" and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address

NEW YEAR'S WEATHER.

SIGNAL SERVICE INDICATIONS.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31—8 p. m.—Indications for succeeding thirty-two hours, or period ending 4 a. m. Saturday: For California, fair weather, increasing northwesterly winds; slightly cooler in northern portion; nearly stationary in the southern portion.

LOCAL BULLETIN.

LOS ANGELES SIGNAL OFFICE, Dec. 31—At 4 a. m. to-day the thermometer registered 47; at noon 59, and at 7 p. m. 50. Barometer for corresponding periods, 29.91, 29.90, 29.85. Maximum temperature, 61.6; minimum, 42.8. Weather at 7 p. m., clear.

Buena mañana, Año Nuevo!

AND a happy New Year!

MAY your new leaf never turn back!

JAPAN is not so safe a refuge for black legs as Canada. Pratt, the forger, must come back.

SENATOR SHARON is dead and gone, but the soul of his lawsuit still lingers on the threshold of the courts.

SANTA ANA VALLEY produced last year 130,000 boxes of raisins, more or less.

ARIZONA has at last convicted a murderer, and it is said that he must hang. There is hope for the Territory yet!

SINCE 1873 the assessed valued of all property in Los Angeles county has quadrupled.

"Some ha'e meat they canna eat,
And some ha'e none that want it.
But we ha'e meat that we can eat,
And sae the Lord be thankit."

A VERITABLE Bluebeard, who has been murdering women and girls, has been discovered in Texas. His name is Martinez and he is a crank.

NO TIMES TO-MORROW. The employés of the TIMES office will devote themselves to the usual New Year's festivities to-day; consequently there will be no issue of the paper to-morrow.

THE printing of the several New Year's issues of the DAILY TIMES and the WEEKLY MIRROR involved presswork to the number of 67,284 impressions.

IN view of the wonderful progress made during a few years past, the claim for one hundred thousand population in Los Angeles ten years hence seems even within the limit of probability.

THE latest San Francisco gossip is that Sarah Althea, the Rose of Sharon, is to be married to Judge Terry. That fine romance of the court-room must have been too much for their tender young hearts!

THE next WEEKLY MIRROR will be a prodigy; also a "daisy." In fact, it will be a "hebdomadal" of vast and symmetrical proportions. It will also be virile and flamboyant by a large majority. Subscribe for the MIRROR and be happy.

AMONG other gentlemen to whom the TIMES is indebted for valuable information furnished in compiling the present issue, are Secretary Lawrence, of the Board of Trade; Railroad Agent Mosher, of the Southern Pacific; Collector Brierly, of Wilmington (whose statistics will appear later), and all our special correspondents.

ON the advent of a New Year—and may it be a happy one for all!—THE TIMES sincerely hopes that all the wayward ones, and especially the Mugwumps, will repent of their sins and firmly resolve to lead virtuous and useful lives in the future. As for their past offenses, we pray that the recording angel may drop a tear on the record of each sin and blot it out forever.

GOVERNOR ZULICK, finding that in requesting detachments of Government troops to protect the Apaches from the murderous Arizonians, he has put his foot in it, now sends a message of retraction. "On the contrary," he says, "it was quite the reverse; I wanted troops to protect Arizonians from Apaches." Now, then, Governor, which was it, Arizonians or Apaches? Tell something and stick to it.

LORENZO SNOW, a jack Mormon, seventy-two years old, who has seven wives and twenty-three children, has been convicted of unlawful cohabitation. Of course, a man with such a record finds it hard to lie out of it, or plead insanity, or justification by faith. There is a wife for every day in the week dead against him! Snow will not be sealed to any more. He will be sealed in a cell.

THE news of the reappointment of James L. Wilder as superintendent of the eighth division of railway mail service at San Francisco has been received by the employés of the postal department in this city with genuine satisfaction, and will be hailed in the same manner by all who are conversant with the workings of this branch of the public service on this coast. Upon the head of this veteran representative of the railway mail service rests the burden of over twenty years' experience in the complicated workings of the department, and it is not too much to say that he holds within his memory every detail of progress which has been made by the best system of railway mail service in the world during that time.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE GRISMER-DAVIES Company.—Called Back was repeated to a good-sized and thoroughly appreciative audience last night by this excellent company. The production went off more smoothly and with added strength. Mr. Webster's "Macari" was much improved. Miss Davies and Mr. Grismer added to their well-earned laurels.

At the special New Year's matinee this afternoon the company will produce The Wages of Sin, a very strong melo-drama; and this evening Lester Wallack's admirable military comedy drama, The Veteran. To-morrow evening the brilliant and romantic melo-drama, Monte Cristo. To-morrow matinee, Called Back.

The Police Change.

As the whistles and bells sounded for midnight, John Horner ceased to be Chief of Police, and J. W. Davis took his place. The police force, old and new, was present, and there was friendly greeting all around. Assistant City Attorney Kelly made a brief address, exhorting the men to harmony and obedience. Chief Davis spoke a few modest words; Captain Ketlar assigned the watches, and the guardians of the peace walked out into the New Year, each smoking a fine cigar from the Chief's box.
